

REVERE MEMORY OF GENERAL LEE

Centenary Anniversary of
His Birth to Be Observed
Here.

Exercises in New Willard
Hotel Next Saturday Evening.

Confederate Veterans' Association of Daughters of Confederacy in Charge.

The celebration of the centenary anniversary of the birth of Gen. Robert E. Lee will take place next Saturday evening at the New Willard Hotel, beginning at 8:30 o'clock. The program of exercises to be presented on the occasion is about completed by the committee. President Roosevelt has promised to contribute a letter to be read on the evening of the event bearing on the life and character of the great chieftain of the Confederacy.

Senators Berry of Arkansas and Culbertson of Texas have promised to address the assemblage, and one of the strong musical features will be the selections to be rendered by the choir of the Epiphany Episcopal Church. The committee having charge of the celebration of the event is composed of representatives of the two leading Southern societies, and consists of Maj. G. McD. Carrington, president of the Confederate Veterans' Association; J. M. Holmes, Conrad, J. E. Pennybacker, Capt. Wm. A. Gordon, Hon. Charles B. Howry, and Leigh Robinson. The Daughters of the Confederacy are represented on the committee by Mrs. Ralph Walsh, president of the District division, Mrs. Rosalie Biscoe, and Mrs. Archibald Young.

FLAT TO BE HOME OF MARLBOROUGH

LONDON, Jan. 12.—The Duke of Marlborough will live hereafter in a flat on $40,000 a year. The $100,000 settled upon him by W. K. Vanderbilt, father of the duke's wife, he has given to his children. He will maintain himself.

PROUTY AND LANE START FOR WEST

Interstate Commerce Commissioners Prouty and Lane have started for the West to continue hearings in the Hariman case in Denver and Seattle. They may hold hearings at Portland, San Francisco, and Los Angeles. The commission is expected to discuss the investigation. The report on the grain elevator inquiry will not be submitted to Congress until the Peavey elevator case is decided in Missouri.

SUED FOR VIOLATION OF SAFETY APPLIANCE ACT

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company has been sued in the District Supreme Court for $200 damages by the United States through District Attorney Baker, at the request of the Interstate Commerce Commission for alleged violation of the safety appliance act. It is alleged that the railroad company, October 26, last, ran two cars over its lines out of Washington, each having defective couplings, for which it is liable to a fine of $100 in each instance.

JAMES E. GILCHRIST DIES SUDDENLY

James S. Gilchrist, a well-known house painting contractor, residing at 1545 Third street northwest, died suddenly Friday at the George Washington University Hospital. He was a native of Washington and had lived here all his life. Mr. Gilchrist was an active union man and a member of the Painters and Decorators' International Union of North America, Local Union No. 28. He is survived by his wife, Elvira W. Gilchrist and seven children. The funeral services were held at the family residence yesterday afternoon. A delegation from the Painters' Union attended.

RAWLINS POST INSTALLS OFFICERS AT CAMPFIRE

John A. Rawlins Post, G. A. R., held a campfire Friday evening, at which the officers for the ensuing term were installed by Mustering Officer S. W. Buzza. Those now in authority are W. J. Weiss, post commander; John J. Meding, senior vice commander; S. L. Stratton, junior vice commander; W. J. Armstrong, surgeon; James A. Allen, adjutant; H. Klier, officer of the day; Francis Neale, officer of the guard; and Rudolph B. Schwickard, quartermaster. With songs, stories, speeches, and instrumental numbers and a plentiful supply of refreshments, the veterans had a most enjoyable evening.

ORIGINATOR OF BANKING METHOD.

William Banting, the originator of the cure for corpulence, was a London merchant who was born in 1797 and died in 1878. In 1862 he published a letter in the newspapers on corpulence, and his views excited widespread interest. In a little more than a year he had reduced his own weight from 262 pounds to 156, and in seven months more to 150. He was five feet five inches in height. His cure was a dietary one entirely. He excluded from his diet all farinaceous, saccharine and oily matter, which is converted into fat, such as potatoes, parsnips, beets, turnips, and carrots; bread, pastry, butter, milk, beer, port wine, champagne, pork, herring, meat, poultry, dry sherry, Madeira, green vegetables, and in moderation soft-boiled eggs and cheese. He was rich and he spent a great deal of money to spread his views.

85c Doz. for 12 Cabinet Photos
Special Offer for 30 Days
FABER, 802 7th Street

THOMAS, OF OHIO, FROM FAMED TOWN

District Has Also Sent Men
to Congress Who Have Made Good.

W. AUBREY THOMAS,
Representative in Congress From Nineteenth Ohio District.

W. Aubrey Thomas represents the most famous Congressional district in the United States.

His home is at Niles, Ohio, and it was the birthplace of President McKinley. The district is the old Nineteenth, and for fifty years it had but three Congressmen, Joshua R. Giddings, James A. Garfield, and Ezra B. Taylor. These three men were "gaints in those days," and Garfield became President. Another eminent citizen of the same district was bluff Ben Wade, who served eighteen years in the United States Senate, and who would have been President had Johnson been impeached. This little preface explains why Congressman Thomas is in a trying situation. His constituents have been used to seeing their Congressman attain distinction, and they do not want the record broken.

After Taylor the Congressman was Northway, who died in his third term, then came Charles Dick, now a Senator, and then Thomas, who has no Senatorial ambition at present. His nomination four years ago was a surprise, also a shock to those of the Dick following who had planned the election of Elbert Lamson, reading clerk of the House.

Thomas had not figured in politics save as a councilman in his little city. He was blessed with riches and Welsh tenacity of purpose. He went into the contest and paralyzed the fellows who had never dreamed of anyone winning but Lamson. There has been trouble in the district ever since, but with a majority of 15,000 Thomas has only to get a nomination.

KING VICTOR EMMANUEL HONORED BY AMERICANS

ROME, Jan. 12.—Henry White, United States ambassador, today conferred on King Victor Emmanuel the academic hood of the University of Pennsylvania, and presented his majesty with his diploma as doctor of laws. At the same time the medal bestowed by the directors of the St. Louis Exposition for the King's services in promoting the Italian exhibition there was presented.

WHITEWASH HIDES ART IN POPE'S OLD BEDROOM

PARIS, Jan. 12.—Great interest has been aroused at Avignon by an artistic discovery of the highest importance with regard to the former palace of the Popes. This palace has for many years been used as a military barracks, but has now been evacuated. In the former bedroom of the Popes a thick coating of whitewash has been carefully removed, and underneath it has been found a number of fourteenth-century frescoes of the greatest beauty and interest.

KEPPLER TO GET JOB.

Health Officer Dr. William C. Woodward has recommended to the Commissioners the appointment of George H. Keppler as a laborer in the Disinfecting Service, vice Rudolph Murphy, removed. The recommendation has been approved by Commissioner Macfarland.

"77"
Humphreys' Seventy-Seven Cures Colds and GRIP
If You Have Aching Bones,
Fever, Sneezing and 'Blues'
You Have the Grip.

With aching bones, fevered bodies, sneezing and depressed mentality, thousands are in the grasp of the Grip.

If you will keep "Seventy-seven" handy (it fits the vest pocket) and take it promptly, you will not have to lay up, but can keep about your business, this appeals to busy people.

At Druggists', 25 cents, or mailed.
Humphreys' Homeo. Medicine Co., Cor. Wil-ham and John Streets, New York.

SURGEONS' DECISION MAKES PENN FREE

Police Fail to Hold Him as Insane Asylum
Fugitive.

May Return to His Work of Translating the Scriptures.

Familiar Figure of the Bath-
Chair Motor Held
One Day.

John Goshorne—for the venerable old gentleman now admits that is his real name instead of Dr. William Shakespear Penn—is a free man, the police surgeons having determined last evening that there was no ground for holding him. He was arrested yesterday afternoon by Central Office Detectives Weedon and Burleigh upon information from Harrisburg, Pa., stating that he was a fugitive from an insane asylum there. Goshorne has been in Washington for two years, and his record during that time, the surgeons said, did not warrant holding him on the insanity charge.

Riding about in his bath chair motor, which is gaily decorated with bright bunting and coats of arms, he has long been one of the familiar sights on the streets of Washington. He says that he has devoted his life to a translation of the Scriptures, with a view of establishing his favorite theory. That the Anglo-Saxon race today actually embodies the lost tribes of Israel is a theory not alone held by him, but by many others, but Goshorne is probably unique in proclaiming himself their prophet and restorer.

Inventor of Vehicle.

The curious vehicle which is his constant medium of locomotion, was invented by him, and the secret of its propulsion is one which he has never cared to divulge, baffling the curiosity of any questioner by replying: "No, it is not by electricity, but by eccentricity." The curious, however, may look underneath, and see a pair of pedals.

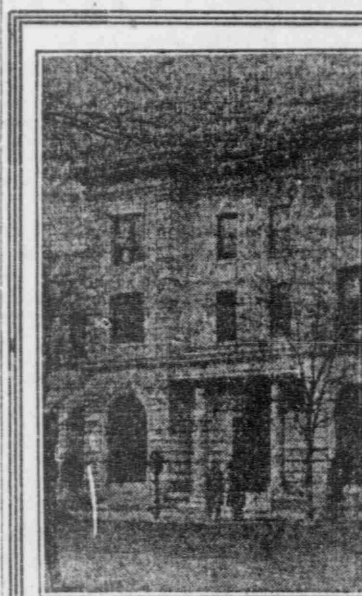

Goshorne is employed as a fireman at a small apartment house at 230 G street northwest. He is an artist of no mean ability, and his little room in the basement has been converted into a gallery of allegorical paintings. There are several paintings of himself, and all of them are excellent likenesses. On one of the walls is a picture labeled, "Good-bye England." It represents the aged man, with his long white beard flying in the breeze, seated in his curious vehicle, sailing out of the English channel. The others are all of an allegorical character, most of them bearing on the revelations of the Scriptures as depicted by him.

Looks All of Seventy.

Goshorne gives his age as fifty-eight, but he looks to be seventy. He certainly is a most remarkable man. Many have noticed his venerable form, vigorous in spite of his long flowing white beard, as inspired with the fire of perpetual youth. He is a churchman of the most unsectarian type and a firm believer of the necessity of religious training for the young.

POPE GIVES KING RAILROAD TICKET.

ROME, Jan. 12.—During the King of Greece's visit to the Vatican, Pope Pius X presented to him as a souvenir the return half of the round trip railway ticket which he had taken from Venice when he came to attend the conclave which resulted in his being placed in the Pontifical Chair.

New Home of the United States Savings Bank N. W. Corner 14th and U Streets

THE officers and directors extend YOU and the public generally an invitation to attend THE OPENING of this bank's new building tomorrow (Monday) evening, January 14, from 8 until 11 p. m. COMMERCIAL ACCOUNTS invited. Safe Deposit Boxes for rent within Fire and Burglar-proof Vaults, $3 year and upward.

OFFICERS

Chas. A. Douglas, President.
M. A. Winter, 1st Vice Pres.
Jas. L. Karrick, 2d Vice Pres.
Jas. B. Lackie, Secretary.
John C. Athey, Cashier.
A. E. L. Leckie, Attorney.

GARBER LONE STAR IN OHIO DELEGATION

Democratic Leader Is in Congress With Twenty Republicans.

HARVEY C. GARBER,
State Chairman of the Democratic Party in Ohio.

Harvey C. Garber is the only Democrat in the present Ohio delegation. He is chairman of the State committee, and the only Ohio Democrat who has given Tom Johnson a good thrashing in recent years. Because of his official power in the State organization, Garber will have much to say about the next Ohio delegation in a national convention. He is a hopeful cuss and delights in stirring up strife between the opposing Republican factions. Garber is just forty, and has had two terms in Congress. He began as a railroad telegrapher, had charge of the Western Union office in his home town of Greenville, and then served two terms in the Legislature.

BETTER THAN ALARMS: MESMERIST WAKES YOU UP

PARIS, Jan. 12.—Prof. Pickmann, a well-known mesmerist in Paris, has been creating a sensation by his remarkable cures effected by means of suggestion on people who have acquired the habit of late hours.

Among the mesmerist's most interesting cures is that of a Baron Dutilleul who used to rise only at midday and never go to bed before 2 in the morning. Now at 11 o'clock at night, whenever he may be, the baron is overcome by sleepiness and is obliged to go home and to bed. On the other hand, he cannot sleep a wink after 6 in the morning.

BIRTHPLACE OF RUBENS FOUND TO BE COLOGNE

COLOGNE, Jan. 12.—A recently discovered genealogical tree belonging to the family of Peter Paul Rubens, the great Flemish painter, shows that he was born in this city.

Rubens' father and mother were both of Antwerp, and of the seven children born to them three were born in Cologne, among them being the youngest, Peter Paul Rubens, who came into the world in June, 1577. According to other documents found at the same time, the great Rubens is reported as having resided in Cologne until his tenth year, when his parents moved back to Antwerp.

4 per cent
Interest
Paid on Savings Accounts.

Under
U. S.
Government Supervision.

Jamestown Ter-Centennial Exposition

The Jamestown Exposition, near Norfolk, Va., will have many features of attraction different from those at other expositions, most prominent among which will be the Naval and Military gatherings, but one feature of peculiar interest will be the colonial style of architecture in which all of the buildings are constructed. Between thirty and thirty-five States will have state buildings, nearly all of which are replicas of noted colonial buildings or are built after the purest type of the Georgian period.

Bird's Eye View of Jamestown Exposition

Opens
April
26th

Closes
Nov.
30th

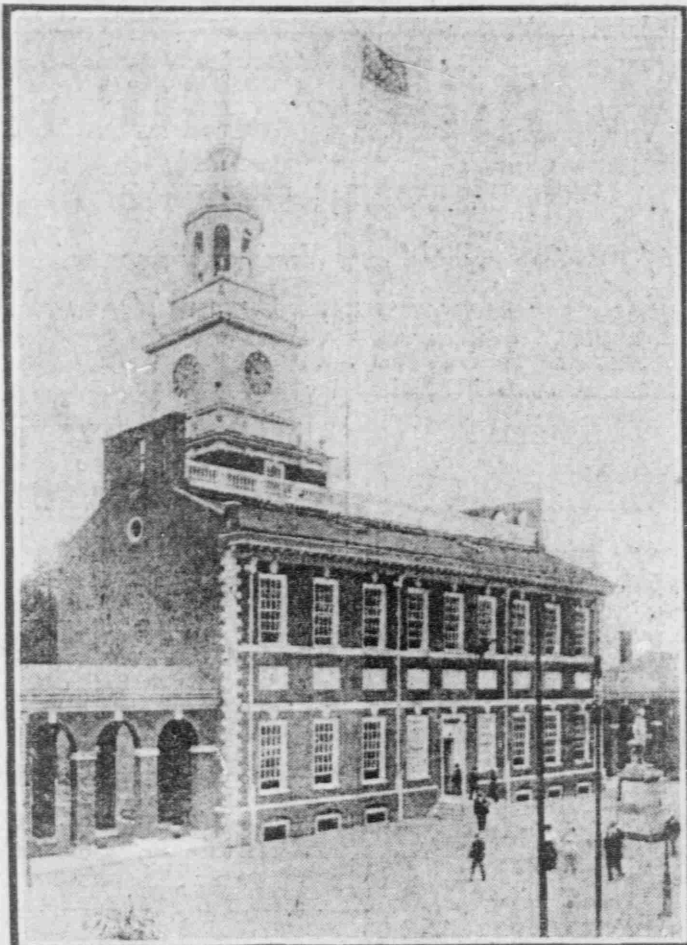

Begin making plans to visit this great Exposition. New Hotels and a new city are fast being erected to accommodate the millions of people who wish to attend

OHIO STATE BUILDING

Ohio has reproduced Adena, the home of her first Governor. The substantial strong walls of this splendid structure are not only in keeping with the period to which it belongs, but are in harmony with the substantial and permanent character of most of the structures which are being located on the grounds of the Jamestown Exposition, and which in years to come will be monuments to their respective states and mementos of this Ter-Centennial celebration. Ohio is also preparing to erect a large exhibit building, with about one hundred thousand square feet of floor space, in which will be assembled a great exhibit of the manufactures of that state.

On a beautiful site commanding a view of Hamp on Roads stands a replica of Independence Hall, which Pennsylvania has erected as the state building to which she will welcome at the Exposition all visitors and friends. No state in the Union is participating in this Ter-Centennial of the founding of our nation with more enthusiasm than the great Keystone state

PENNSYLVANIA STATE BUILDING

RHODE ISLAND STATE BUILDING

The Rhode Island building, which is another fine specimen of colonial residences, with broad porticos and Grecian columns, has the distinction of being the first of the state buildings completed on the exposition grounds.